

“Empowering Indigenous Women to Share Their Story Their Way” Oral History Workshop

Presented By

The Muscogee (Creek) Nation Oral History Program
Historic and Cultural Preservation Department

Saturday, April 27, 2024

9 am – 2 pm

College of the Muscogee Nation

For more information and registration contact Midge Dellinger, 918-732-7618, or email ddellinger@muscogeenation.com

Registration Deadline: April 15, 2024 (Class limited to 20 participants)

Learn the basic steps in an oral history interview. Then continue your oral history journey by interviewing an Indigenous female in your life to be shared with the Muscogee (Creek) Nation National Library and Archives.

Oral traditions and histories have sustained Indigenous peoples since time immemorial, and Indigenous women’s voices have much to teach us!

In partnership with the Oklahoma Oral History Research Program (Oklahoma State University Library), the National Park Service, and the National Park Service Foundation