Muscogee Nation Scholarship Foundation Announces Recipients of the Aristocrat Cokv Hecv Honors Program Scholarships

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Monday, September 28, 2026

Okmulgee, Oklahoma, September 18, 2026 – The Muscogee Nation Scholarship Foundation is proud to announce the ten outstanding scholars selected for the fourth class of Aristocrat Cokv Hecv Honors Program. These scholars have demonstrated exceptional commitment to tribal leadership, community service, cultural involvement, and academic excellence, embodying the values of the Muscogee Nation.

After a rigorous selection process overseen by an independent review committee, the following individuals have been chosen as recipients of the Aristocrat Cokv Hecv Honors Program scholarships for the Academic Year 2026-2027:

1.	Amari Turner	University of Oklahoma
2.	Brodie Moore	Northeastern State University
3.	Georgia Adeline Harjo	University of Oklahoma
4.	Jerean Mosquito	Northeastern State University
5.	Kaiden Bear	Southeastern Oklahoma State University
6.	Kendal Wells	University of Arkansas-Little Rock
7.	Marie Taylor	Utah Valley University
8.	Mekko Tyner	University of Michigan
9.	Travis Paakkonen	Oklahoma State University
10.	Veronica Ramsey	Oklahoma State University

"We are excited to announce and present the fourth class of Aristocrat Cokv Hecv Honors Program Scholars," said Pete Coser, Jr., MHR, Director of the Muscogee Nation Scholarship Foundation. "These outstanding Mvskoke Scholars represent the best and brightest of our communities and we are honored to support their academic journey."

Each scholar will receive a $5,000 scholarship for the 2024-2025 Academic Year ($2,500 per term) to assist them in achieving their educational goals. In addition to financial support, scholars will be required to participate in tribal community volunteer work and also attend future meetings with Foundation representatives.

"The Aristocrat Cokv Hecv Honors Program was made possible through our partnership with Aristocrat Cares to highlight our Mvskoke Scholars that excel in community service, leadership, community/cultural involvement, and academic performance. Each selected student exemplifies Mvskoke Leadership" added Coser. "We are confident that these scholars will make significant contributions to our community and beyond."

"It's an honor for Aristocrat Gaming to partner with the Muscogee Nation Scholarship Foundation on the Aristocrat Cokv Hecv Honors Program," said James Starr, president of VGT by Aristocrat Gaming. "We extend heartfelt congratulations to this year's scholars. Supporting educational opportunities is a cornerstone of our commitment to empowering the next generation of leaders in the gaming industry."

The Muscogee Nation Scholarship Foundation extends its congratulations to the recipients of the Aristocrat Cokv Hecv Honors Program scholarships and wishes them continued success in their academic and leadership pursuits.
